The Neighbourhood

Avenue Court is an impressive mansion block on Draycott Avenue with caretaker and lift. This section of the street is lined with red-brick mansion blocks, many of them built in the late nineteenth century with beautiful bay windows and patterned brickwork.

Draycott Avenue is located in the centre of Chelsea, leading between the King's Road and the Fulham Road. The neighbourhood is well-supplied with restaurants and shops, while Sloane Square and South Kensington underground stations are both within walking distance. In addition, Pavilion Road is close, with its village-like collection of independent boutiques and artisanal food shops.
