The Property

CLOSE X

Exceptionally large duplex flat with sophisticated contemporary interiors in a sought-after building close to Kensington Gardens

Entertaining Spaces CLOSE

Stepping into the flat on the third floor, the lobby leads into a spacious sitting room. A bay window gives balcony access and fills the space with additional light. This space flows through to an unusually generous reception room, also with balcony access. Next door is a dining room, and both these spaces are flooded with light from banks of windows.

Indoor Spaces

This floor also features a fitted kitchen with a convenient breakfast area, as well as ensuite bedroom, a utility room, a guest WC and additional storage.

The Bedrooms

CLOSE X

The fourth floor offers a well-proportioned principal bedroom suite with a bedroom, a bathroom with a bath, and a dressing room. There are four more bedrooms on this floor, all of them ensuite, and all with inbuilt wardrobe space. An additional reception room completes this level.

The Design

CLOSE X

The flat is decorated in contemporary style that evokes the bright, stylish spaces of a New York loft. Hardwood floors, exposed brick walls, and minimalist decoration are finished to an exceptionally high standard. It is presented in immaculate condition with an integrated sound system and air conditioning throughout.

Outdoor Spaces CLOSE X

The Neighbourhood

The flat includes a pair of balconies with spectacular rooftop views and enough space for outdoor seating.

Hale House is one of the most impressive apartment buildings in South Kensington. Built in the 1880s, it offers porters, lifts and a pair of private landscaped courtyards.

De Vere Gardens is a prestigious street running south from Kensington Gardens, lined with grand white stucco townhouses dating from the 1840s. Its celebrated former residents include the poet Robert Browning and the novelist Henry James.

From here, Gloucester Road and Kensington High Street are both close, offering a mix of restaurants, shops and underground stations. In addition, Kensington Gardens and Hyde Park are a short walk away, while the world-class cultural institutions of South Kensington are also nearby.
