The Property

A beautifully presented Victorian house arranged over three floors.

Entering the house on the raised ground floor, you step into a generous reception room with high ceilings that creates a sense of scale. The room is filled with light from large windows and features wooden floors throughout this level. Adjacent is a refined study or sitting room, providing a peaceful retreat. The lower ground floor houses an impressive kitchen and dining room, exceptionally spacious with lofty proportions. This substantial room flows seamlessly, with the kitchen area set back yet remaining open plan to the dining space. French doors open directly onto the south-facing garden, filling the space with natural light. This level also features a well-proportioned bedroom, ideal as a guest room or home office.

The Bedrooms

Ascending to the first floor, the principal bedroom is generously sized with excellent natural light from large windows and benefits from an ensuite bathroom. Two additional bedrooms complete this level - one a good double room, the other a charming single bedroom with bunk beds. A separate family bathroom serves the additional bedrooms. The property retains many period features including high ceilings throughout, creating an impressive sense of space and grandeur. The wooden floors and large windows add to the property's elegant character.

Outdoor Spaces

The house includes a delightful south-facing garden, providing a private outdoor retreat. The garden offers ample space for outdoor seating and entertaining, accessed directly from the kitchen and dining area.

The Neighbourhood

Limerston Street is a quiet residential address in the heart of Chelsea, moments away from the King's Road with its upmarket boutiques and many restaurants. The property is within easy reach of Sloane Square and South Kensington stations, providing excellent transport links across London. The nearby Chelsea Physic Garden and Royal Hospital Chelsea add to the area's distinctive character, while the open spaces of Battersea Park are a short walk away.
