The Property

Three-bedroom flat with contemporary interiors on a sought-after street near Holland Park

Indoor Spaces

Entering the flat on the raised ground floor, the front hall leads through to a formal dining room with south-facing French doors opening onto a balcony. This space communicates with the reception room, with high ceilings and ornate cornices giving a sense of size and splendour. The floor also contains a fitted galley kitchen.

The Bedrooms

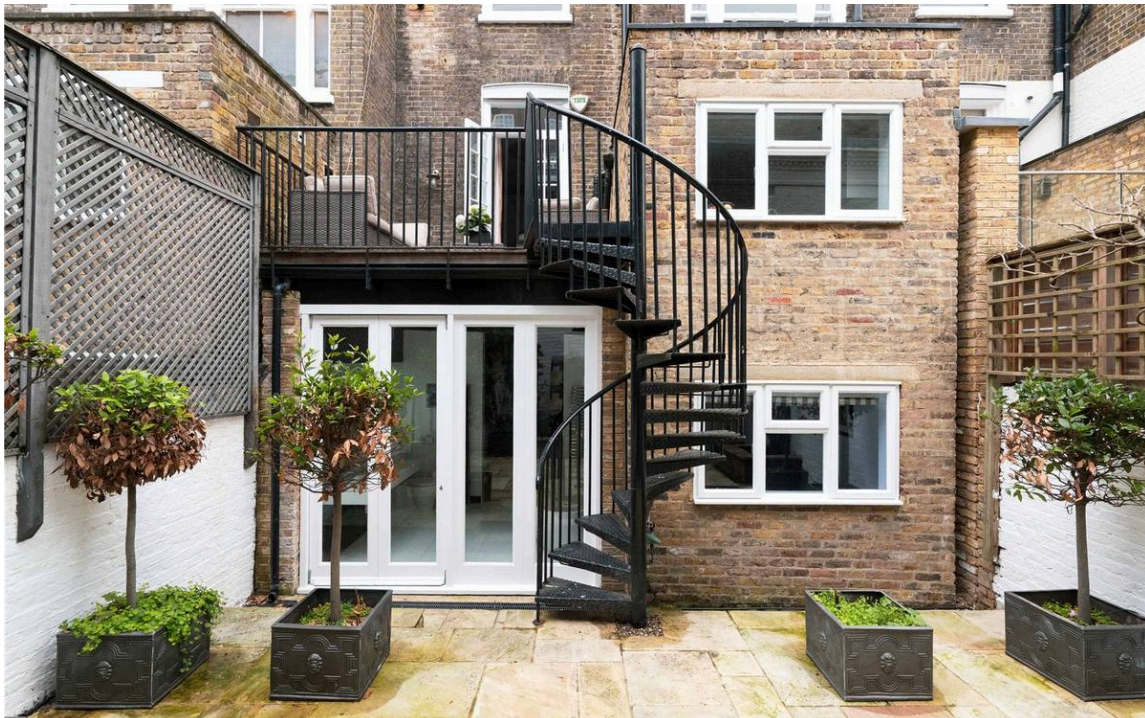

Downstairs is the principal bedroom suite. It has a bathroom with a generous bath and French doors leading out into the garden, as well as a walk-in wardrobe. In addition, this floor contains two more bedrooms, a shared bathroom, considerable storage space and separate street access. The lower floor is decorated in a contemporary style, adding to the appearance of light and space.

Outdoor Spaces

The property includes a rear terrace with wooden decking and enough space for outdoor seating. From here, a spiral staircase leads down to the paved south-facing garden.

The Neighbourhood

Stafford Terrace is an impressive street of half-stucco houses built in the late Victorian Era. The many restaurants and shops of Kensington High Street are close, as well as the underground station. In addition, the southern entrance to Holland Park is a short walk away.
