The Property

Elegantly presented second-floor apartment with air conditioning, a lift and porter.

Stepping into the flat, the generous dining and reception room fills the space with light through large windows and opens onto a private balcony via French doors. High ceilings create a wonderful sense of scale, while considered built-in shelving adds to the sense of elegance. The sophisticated kitchen features sleek handleless units with marble-effect surfaces and integrated appliances, complemented by recessed lighting throughout.

The Bedrooms

The well-proportioned principal bedroom offers built-in storage and an en-suite bathroom, while the second bedroom provides additional accommodation. A separate bathroom showcases marble surfaces and chrome fixtures, with both bath and shower facilities.

Furthermore, the property includes a practical utility room. Wooden floors throughout and air conditioning add to the contemporary comfort, while the apartment is presented in superb condition.

Outdoor Spaces

The property includes a delightful balcony accessed from the reception room, offering charming views across the neighbourhood including the distinctive historic church nearby.

The Neighbourhood

Wycombe Square is a quiet residential address moments away from the excellent amenities of Kensington High Street. The building benefits from both porter service and lift access, adding to the sense of refinement. Holland Park is a short walk away, while the cultural attractions of South Kensington are nearby. Kensington High Street Underground station provides superb transport connections across London.
